

Indonesian Hashers In Exile

IHIEH3

- Suffering from Culture Shock

Hashmaster	Ronnie 'Penguin' Strachan	Vice Master	Terence 'Bunter' Kavanagh
Scribe	Doug 'Jetstream' Whittle	HashFlash	Brigitte 'Mme Durex' Sumner
RA	Rex 'Tampon' Sumner	Master of Music

Correspondence: Rex Sumner, PO Box 6, BATTLE, E Sussex TN33 9QL
Tel: 01424-838691 Fax: 01424-838519

INDONOSTALGIA RUN 6

TIMBO & LOBY'S COCKHAM CLASSIC

It was anticipated that the proximity of Cookham to so many Indonesian Exiles' kennels would encourage a huge attendance..... but this was not the case. What happened to them all? Had the Taxidermist stuffed the Gorilla and Mad Dog? Why didn't Kingdom come? Is Crabbo still up a gum tree? Swollen Member and Janet's engagement vow at Shere "to have and to Hash" abandoned, (they also failed to invite the RA to officiate at their secret wedding). Not a word from Gullett and Judy, whilst Slaphead and Toyboy deserted to attend the Essex 555. Even Barnacle Bill failed to phone! A pox on them all. Napoleon at least sent his effigy whilst the Pheelthy Phrogg and Wet Dream sent their regrets. Too Tuf registered (and paid!) but canceled at the last moment due to a septic groin strain in the aftermath to his recent marriage to Letty (yes, this was the recipient of the famed 'golden flow').

Perhaps they were all confused by Tampon's pre-run instructions or the delay in sending out the details. Eyebrows was certainly confused, even registering a phantom Anak-anak. Proof that despite Tien's demise Pungli still rules!

The Penguin flew down from the frozen north in a snowstorm to lead the pack off from the Old Swan Uppers. Although the proximity of two more pubs proved irresistible to Bear and Sharkie, most of the pack followed Nick towards open country. Jungle rules kept the pack together until Timekeeper led Penny and a breakaway group to the hills whilst Klinger enticed Catherine, Penguin Janjin and others to follow the trail over the river. The resulting confusion gave everyone their moment of glory with an athletic Bear leading at one point. Even Alice and Resuscitation Job found themselves "out in front", whilst Lisbeth wasn't far behind.

A particularly devious, and dubious, check had one group of FRBs running round like mad cows on the wrong side of the Thames until it became obvious that, as usual, they had cocked it up., SCBs had got it right and were already at the beer stop enjoying a welcome bottle of Bintang, kindly donated by Bunter. Like it's donor the Beer was past its' sell by date, although still in Prime condition!?

Timbo again stretched the definition of a check to the limits with a long turn back across the golf course. Jetstream finally locating flour on the back nine and heading for home, closely followed by the Bandung Crow, Gibber, Penny and Icepyck.

Hash anjin enjoyed their outing although the Cameron hound failed to arouse Bodoh and Roy. For managing to run the entire trail with a bitch on heat, Jan deserves a hash handle, possibly Janjin?

In the absence of a Music Master, the circle gave a warm and tuneless welcome to Indonostalgia virgins, Kingfisher, Queenfisher, Catherine and Diplomat, proving that Hashing is the only way of losing your virginity more than once. Hastings HHH should seriously consider renaming their representative Flyfisher following the episode with sexy pants, zip and pubes! (ask Queenfisher for the painful details).

Thanks to Tineke, who had sent Bintang glasses for the down-downs and a genuine SHHH shirt & cap which were awarded to Loby for her co-hare and culinary efforts.

Bunter and Timbo kept the beer circulating whilst sinners and saints were awarded down-downs with equal abandon. Meanwhile Hashflash Mme Durex recorded the events on film for the benefit of the illiterate. Friendly insults and charges were traded around the circle with Penguin and Tampon almost losing control as Gibber and Bear tried to usurp their authority. Diplomat failed to defend Sharkie (they're always guilty) for failing to co-hare the 5th Run with Gossamer, a heinous crime earning a brief squat on ice, an early reprieve granted on account of a pain in the arse, whether he is one or has one is debatable. Breach of rule six earned Alice a down-down, tit feeling being the prerogative of the RA, not Harriettes.

It may come as a surprise that Hash Stats have been recorded since the first run in Battle and confirm that Bunter, Penguin, Tampon, Mme Durex, Jetstream and Penny have attended all six runs (a down-down offense). Those who have only missed out once (Icepyck, Timbo, Starkers, Lionel and Eyebrows) were represented by Dave who selflessly enjoyed a down-down on their behalf.

A continuous supply of makan (ikan, kambing, nasi) from Loby provided a solid base for the evenings imbibing, thanks also to Timbo who spent most of the afternoon bent over the hot coals of the sate cooker.

As the first keg of IPA expired, so did Bear, with even the efforts of Resuscitation Job failing to arouse him. As the sun set, the warm fug of the Old Swan Uppers bar beckoned and proceedings moved inside. Day trippers pissed of leaving the rest to piss up. As the scribe only had a Day pass, the remainder of this epistle was gleaned from the burblings of that venerable sleuth, Harelip.

More virgins arrived on Sunday when the 4-Skin family from Medan joined for the Hangover run. This was so devious that only Penguin claims to have found it. No shortage of hangovers however, and the rest of the pack spread out all over Cockham Moor like the Berkshire ramblers club.

The circle was said to be superior to Saturdays as the Day-trippers had pissed off and excessive heckling was suppressed. Bear and Sharkie had signed the pledge overnight but a few charges soon put them back on the straight and narrow glass. "No hats in the circle" was taken to extremes and the RA's headgear hasn't been seen since.

A huge vote of tHHHanks to Timbo and Loby for hosting the event, laying the trails and providing all the food and beer.

Make a not for the date for the next run, to be held in Paris on the first weekend in September 1996. Hares are required for the next year's Spring and Autumn runs (or we will have to return to Hastings or Cambridge again).

And Finally...

It is reported that a Sgt Taylor CID telephoned the Ford Motor Company in search of a certain Roger Giddings. It appears that he had absco9nded from the Old Swan Uppers Public House without paying his bill. Although working under an alias (call me Bruce), when confronted he admitted his guilt and diplomatically offered to settle immediately rather than be left on ice.

Scribe, Jetstream On-On!

INDONOSTALGIA T-SHIRTS

You may have noticed that some of those who were on the Aberdeen Run are the proud owners of lovely colourful INDONOSTALGIA T-Shirts. If you have contacts in the rag trade and would like to become Hash Boutique please contact Doug "Jetstream" Whittle (on 01223-564201) who will be pleased to pass on the artwork.

INDONOSTALGIA MAILING LIST

The Indonostalgia Mailing list is now over 100 and to avoid unnecessary postage the mismanagement would appreciate response from anyone who has not attended any of the past four runs (Shere, Aberdeen, Weymouth, Cookham). If you have attended a recent run please pass this on to another ex-Indonesia Hasher.

Please delete the statements which don not apply, complete the slip and return to Rex "Tampon" Sumner, PO Box 6, BATTLE, East Sussex, TN33 9QL.

✂ ----------

I am a miserable bastard who will never make it to another Nostalgia Run, please cross me off your list.

I want to keep in touch as I hope to be able to attend a run eventually. Please keep me on the list, I enclose a couple of quid to help with postage.

I am not on your list, but would like to be added. I hope to come to a run soon and enclose a couple of quid as evidence of my good intentions.

Name: ----------

Hash Handle: ----------

Address: ----------

Telephone: ----------

Hash History: ----------

---------- (previous Indonesian Hashes and appointments)